

GREEN & WHITE

July 9, 2009

CRAFTING A PARTNERSHIP

Follow the leader

$tudent $$$$$$$$$$

Basketball BONANZA

Pensacola Junior College embraces the diversity of its community by maintaining open access, by continuing to focus on quality education and by creating an opportunity for success in an atmosphere of concern, respect, integrity and responsibility.

Published by College Marketing and Information

PJC & MCCOLLOUGH PARTNERSHIP3

Board nominates Andry4

National All-Star basketball5

Shhhhh, silent auction6

July Starlink Webcast6

Green & White

Faculty and staff newsletter

Editor, Alice Crann Good

Graphic designer, Kat Villines

E-mail news to Green & White or to Alice Crann Good.
The deadline is noon Monday prior to Friday's publication.

CRAFTING A PARTNERSHIP

Pensacola Junior College President Ed Meadows and McCollough Institute founder/chief executive officer Dr. E. Gaylon McCollough announce a multi-faceted collaboration.

Meadows and McCollough solidified the partnership during an agreement signing and reception June 29 at the McCollough Institute for Appearance and Health, located in the Craft Farms Coastal Golf Resort in Gulf Shores, Ala.

"This is an exciting day for me," said McCollough, speaking to Gulf Shores officials and business leaders, a PJC delegation and distinguished guests. "PJC's students are among the best I have worked with, and they come into the operating room ready to step right in." About 20 PJC surgical tech students have completed clinical rotations at the Institute since March.

"I am delighted to partner with a man of such international reputation," Meadows said. "We plan to optimize every opportunity — a comprehensive array of opportunities — the partnership provides."

Partnership provisions include clinical site rotation internships for PJC students enrolled in medical and cosmetic programs; collaboration with various PJC programs to engage students in work projects; Institute medical staff providing lectures and advising the college about emerging medical workforce career training needs; PJC assisting recruitment of graduates for employment at the Institute; collaboration with WSRE TV (the college's PBS station), PJC's Continuing Education department and the Institute.

McCollough is a world renowned facial and nasal plastic surgeon. He is listed among the "Best Doctors in America," "America's Top Plastic Surgeons" and the National Registry of Who's Who in America. He has served as the international president of the largest specialty plastic surgery organization in the world — the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

For more information, call 484-1700.

Photos by Robin Mertins

News Briefs

July 9, 2009

July 9, 1955: Albert Einstein, Bertrand Russell and nine other scientists warned that the development of weapons of mass destruction had created a choice between war and survival of the human species. The Russell-Einstein Manifesto was published in London and became the basis for the Pugwash Conference of Scientists two years later.

Board meets

The July Board of Trustees meeting is 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 21, Building 7, room 736B, Pensacola campus.

Board nominates Andry

The Pensacola Junior College District Board of Trustees announces its nomination of Vincent Andry for the 2009 Association of Community College Trustees Leadership Award.

Former Florida Gov. Jeb Bush appointed Andry to the PJC Board in 2003 and reappointed him in 2006. During his six-year tenure, Andry served as chair of the finance and facilities committees, two terms as vice chair and two terms as chair of the PJC Board.

Andry, supervisor of customer service for the Pensacola electric utility Gulf Power, served on the PJC Board during the aftermath of Hurricane Ivan, which struck Pensacola and the Gulf Coast in September 2004. The force of Ivan devastated all three PJC campuses; the college sustained $18 million in facilities damage. Andry provided key leadership in assisting with the repair and re-opening the college after only six weeks following the hurricane.

Andry

In his second term as vice chair, Andry chaired the college's search committee for a new president. A 35-member committee, composed of PJC faculty, staff and students, along with key members of the Escambia-Santa Rosa county community, conducted a national search for a new college leader.

Andry also provided leadership resulting in an expanded mission and vision for the college to take steps toward becoming a baccalaureate-degree granting institution.

In addition, he participated in ACCT legislative workshops in Washington, D.C. and was active in the Florida Association of Community Colleges Trustee Commission.

The Association of Community College Trustees is a non-profit educational organization of governing boards, representing more than 6,500 elected and appointed trustees who govern more than 1,200 community, technical and junior colleges in the United States.

For more information, call 484-1700.

Cuban American Association gives

Pensacola Junior College announces the Cuban American Association of Pensacola awarded PJC student Mary Heuvelman a $500 scholarship.

Heuvelman, who graduated summa cum laude from PJC in May, received the scholarship for her art project on the Mariel Boatlift of April 1980. The Mariel Boatlift was named for the northern Cuban port, Mariel Harbor, from which thousands joined an unprecedented exodus to the United States and was rooted in Fidel Castro's announcement that anyone who wanted to leave Cuba could do so.

As a PJC Robinson Honors Scholar, Heuvelman studied in Europe; she was also selected as PJC's department of History/Languages/Philosophy 2009 scholar. This summer, Heuvelman is studying Spanish in Costa Rica before attending Franciscan University, Steubenville, Ohio, as a Spanish major in the fall.

For more information, contact PJC professor of Spanish Zeida Ward at 484-1437, zward@pjc.edu.

Dance scholarships

Pensacola Junior College announces nine participants of the college's 28th annual Summer Dance Workshop won scholarships to continue dance instruction.

The students are: Savannah Green and Katie Luebke, Pensacola; Justina Walsingham, Panama City Beach; Jaclyn Rosenstein and Alison Rosenstein, Oldsmar; Ali Floyd, Cydney McGee, Morgan Domingue, Hattiesburg, Miss; and Hannah Matherne, Purvis, Miss.

For more information, contact Summer Dance Workshop coordinator Dianne Robbins at 484-1956, drobbins@pjc.edu.

HOSA national winners

Congratulations to Pensacola Junior College HOSA students on their success at the recent Health Occupations Students of America National Leadership Conference in Nashville.

PJC national winners: Theresa Hoang, second place, Epidemiology; and Zachary Hastings, fourth place, Physical Therapy Assisting.

In addition, PJC was recognized for Outstanding Chapter Newsletter and HOSA Week.

Coleman adjudicates

Michael Coleman, department of Music & Theatre, was the adjudicator of the 2009 Society of Composers Inc./American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers Region 1 Composition Competition. Region 1 consists of the northeastern states of the United States.

National All-Star basketball

The National Junior College Athletic Association/Women's Basketball Coaches Association holds its All-Star event at the Pensacola Junior College Hartsell Arena this weekend, July 10-12.

Teams practice 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Friday, July 10. Games are July 11-12 according to the following schedule.

Saturday, July 11: Team 1 vs. Team 2 at 4 p.m.; Team 3 vs. Team 4 at 6 p.m.

Sunday, July 12: Team 2 vs. Team 3 at 12 p.m.; Team 1 vs. Team 4 at 2 p.m.

For more information, contact Coach Chanda Rigby at 484-1331, crigby@pjc.edu, or PJC Director of Athletics Bill Hamilton at 484-1304, bhamilton@pjc.edu.

Shhhhh, silent auction

The Milton campus is hosting a silent auction for a few Relay for Life items through the close of work Tuesday, July 14.

If you're interested in bidding, contact Dawn Loyed at 484-4436, dloyed@pjc.edu.

All proceeds go to next year's Relay for Life.

WSRE needs your help

WSRE needs volunteers for pledge drives 7 to 9 p.m. July 9, July 12 and July 22. If you can help, call WSRE membership coordinator Melissa Carter at 484-1241.

Foundation's Facebook page

Breana Bolster Bruni — coordinator of the Pensacola Junior College Foundation Annual Fund & Alumni Affairs — has created a Facebook page for PJC Alumni & Friends and the Foundation.

"I am constantly receiving E-mails asking about the status of faculty, staff and administrators," Bruni says. "I encourage all of you to become a fan as a quick way to stay connected to your past and current students, friends and colleagues. It's free and easy." Just click on <http://www.facebook.com/login>.

Make a donation to PJC online securely 24 hours a day at alumni.pjc.edu.

For more information, contact Bruni at 484-1562, bbruni@pjc.edu.

July Starlink Webcast

"Online Student Services" helps higher-education institutions develop effective online approaches to delivering student-support services. Needs of online and distance learners are explored, as well as tips for effective design. Examples of institutions that use the Internet to offer students opportunities for self-help and customized services are featured.

Panelists: Nancy Regias, regional coordinator southeast region, Ohio Learning Network; Dan Koenig, associate vice president for Instructional Support and Technology, Piedmont Technical College; Deidre Stidom, online course manager/WebCT trainer/faculty for Computer Technology and Office Systems Technology, Piedmont Technical College; Mickey Slimp, executive director of NETnet.

Password: 2educ8 (case sensitive)

Resource Packet:

<http://www.starlinktraining.org/Packets2007/packet327.pdf>

All times are approximate.

To receive professional development credit, print and fill out the sent form. Have your department head sign and submit it to the SPD Office.